MY DEAR FRIENDS,

As most of you are aware, I am confined to my bed by an attack of phlebitis, and I take this opportunity of thanking very many of you for kind enquiries. The doctor assures me that I am progressing satisfactorily but warns me that recovery will be a matter of some weeks. I hope I may be informed of any cases of serious illness, as several of my clerical neighbours have kindly offered to minister to any of my parishioners who may desire a pastoral visit.

Your servant for Christ's sake,

W. C. ALLSEBROOK.

March 1st, 1909.

LENT.

Owing to the Vicar's illness the Lenten services will of necessity be few, the week-day services being limited (until Holy Week) to Evensong every Thursday at 8. The following clergy have kindly promised to preach:—

March 4th. Rev. O. E. Hayden, M.A., Minor Canon and Sacrist of Gloucester Cathedral, and Head Master of the King's School.

March 11th. Rev. B. Aston, M.A., Assistant Curate of Calne, Wiltshire.

March 18th. Rev. A. C. Style, L.Th., Vicar of Cleeve Prior.

March 25th. (Annunciation B.V.M.) Rev. C. Jerram Hunt, M.A., Rector of Fladbury.

April 1st. Rev. Collins Ashwin, M.A., Rector of Dumbleton.

NOTES AND NEWS.

The following elections have been made to the Ruri-decanal Conference:—

Badsey.—Messrs. E. Ballard, C. A. Binyon, and G. E. Jones.

Wickhamford.— Mr. G. C. Lees-Milne.

At the Conference held at Evesham on February 22nd, the Badsey representatives were present in force.

Mrs. W. H. Keen desires to thank all those friends who for so many weeks showed her husband and herself such practical sympathy.

The Sewing Class will meet for the last time this session on Wednesday, March 17th.

Mrs. H. Byrd has very kindly given a bound volume of "The Boy's Own Paper" to the Parish Library.
