JUNE 24TH, 1909.

The Vicar and Mrs. Allsebrook wish to express through the medium of the Magazine their gratitude to all who contributed towards one or other of the presents received by them on the occasion of their marriage. To the Organist and Choir of Badsey, the teachers and scholars of the Sunday School, the tenants on the Glebe Estate, the members of the Star Football Club, the members of the Vicarage Sewing Class, the parishioners of Badsey, Aldington and Wickhamford generally, and to many who sent individual presents they desire to tender their sincerest thanks. But, above all, do they appreciate and value the goodwill and kindly feeling of which the various gifts are the outward and visible expression, and they trust the future may prove that the confidence of their many friends in both parishes has not been misplaced.

NOTES AND NEWS.

The special offerings on Sunday, June 27, amounted to rather less than one-third of the sum required to pay for the new cross on the transept gable. To go to their ordinary revenue for the balance would sorely tax the resources of the Churchwardens, and they therefore hope that many who have not yet contributed will assist them with donations, which will be gratefully acknowledged. Should the amount received be more than is required, whatever is over will be reserved for future expenditure on the fabric of the church.
