A NEW ARCHDEACONRY.

An Archdeaconry of Warwick is soon to be formed with the Rev. J. H. F. Peile, M.A., at present Vicar of All Saints, Ennismore Gardens, as Archdeacon. It is proposed that the new archdeaconry would include the Rural Deaneries of Warwick, Alcester, North and South Kineton, Blockley, Evesham, Pershore, Bredon, and Feckenham. The Bishop invites expressions of opinion from any concerned in the proposed change, but, whatever may be said for or against the transference of deaneries at the extreme limit of the proposed area, the case of the Rural Deanery of Evesham is one that does not admit of discussion—our situation is so central that we shall be compelled to move with the times, and sever our connection with the archdeaconry.

NOTES AND NEWS.

As Mr. Hollis wishes to remain at Badsey a week longer than originally arranged, the Vicar will not return until September 17.

The Vicar has been informed that there were several complaints about the quality and price of the coal supplied last year to members of the Coal Club. No complaints, however, were made to him personally, and he would be greatly obliged if any depositors who were dissatisfied with last year's coal would kindly say so when giving their orders this year.

The Parish Library will re-open on the first Monday in October. Several new volumes have been added.
