CHURCH EXTENSION.

On Wednesday, December 8th, there will be a meeting at 3 p.m. at the Church House, Evesham, on behalf of the Bishop of Worcester's Church Extension Fund, the object of which is to provide clergy and places of worship for districts at present under-equipped. The Bishop will himself be present to plead the cause of the Fund, and it is hoped that his audience may be large and representative. Tickets may be obtained from the Vicar or Churchwardens.

ADVENT PREACHERS AT BADSEY.

- Wednesday, Dec. 1.—Rev. F. H. Hastings (Captain Retired R.N.), Vicar of Preston-upon-Stour.
- Thursday, „ 9.—Rev. W. D. Lowndes, M.A., Rector of Little Comberton.
- Thursday, „ 16.—Rev. F. L. Venables, B.A., Assistant-Curate of Fladbury.
- Wednesday, „ 22.—Rev. R. Wilson, LL.D., Vicar of Earlswood.

Service at 7 p.m. except on December 1st, when it will be at 7.30.

Mr. Hastings will preach on Foreign Missions. This is a subject which Mr. Hastings is peculiarly qualified to handle as his experience in the navy prior to ordination brought him into touch with missionary work in many different fields of labour, and at the same time enabled him to see the results of such work, not as they are presented to what some are pleased to regard as the distorted vision of the parson, but as they appear in the eyes of the impartial layman.

NOTES AND NEWS.

Missionary Boxes should be returned to the Vicarage not later than December 18th.

A copy of "Donovan" is missing from the Parish Library. As the volume is a popular one the Librarian would be glad if the borrower would return it as soon as possible.

Badsey was the only parish the whole of whose representatives were present at the Ruridecanal Conference held at Evesham on November 15th, whilst several parishes were not represented at all. It looks as though Badsey had got hold of the right men, and it seems equally clear that some parishes in the Deanery have (shall we say?) been less happy in their choice of representatives.
