MORE LIGHT.

The Editor of the Evesham Journal assures us that "no matters of very great importance or interest were discussed at the last quarterly Meeting of the Evesham Town Council" when the Corporation courteously but firmly declined to have anything to do with the extension of a gas main to Badsey. Badsey's appeal for more light has, therefore, not been altogether in vain, for Mr. Editor's comment is indeed 'illuminating,' and we trust his remarks may be received by all concerned with becoming gratitude.

SEWING CLASS.

This Class is now over for the season and the work of the session has been most satisfactory. Mrs. Hands feels very grateful to Mrs. H. Keen who, though unable through ill-health to attend the meetings, has given valuable assistance in the way of purchasing material and in cutting-out. She also wishes to thank many others who, though unable to attend, have taken work home. The Sale of Work will take place at the Vicarage early in June.

The congregations at week-day evensong during Lent have been consistently good and there has been a marked improvement in the attendance of choirmen.
