NOTES AND NEWS.

At the Archdeacon's visitation on April 27th Messrs. J. Sladden and H. Keen and Mr. R. Taylor were admitted to office as churchwardens of Badsey and Wickhamford respectively.

There was a Church Parade of the local company of Territorials at Badsey on Sunday, April 14th. The Lessons were read by Capt. Harry and Mr. Sladden, and the Vicar preached from 2 Tim. ii. 3.

Our readers will sympathise deeply with Mr. A. E. Jones and other members of the family of the late Mr. Joseph Jones in the loss of their eldest sister. Her death is all the more sad as Miss Jones last year underwent an exceptionally severe operation which showed every promise of effecting a permanent cure; alarming symptoms appeared again, however, a short time ago and Miss Jones passed away somewhat suddenly at Parkfield, Lancaster, on Ascension Day. Her body was laid to rest in Badsey Churchyard between those of her father and mother on Monday, May 29th. —R.I.P.
