SUNDAY SCHOOL TREAT.

The children attending our Sunday Schools were entertained to tea at Wickhamford on Wednesday, August 13th, when over a 100 were present. Mr. Mason very kindly allowed the use of the big meadow opposite the Recreation Room and, the weather proving favourable, tea was served in the meadow where an informal cricket match and sports and games for the boys and girls served to keep the children occupied until after 7 o'clock. The cricket match was won by the side captained by E. Wilkins who also made the best score (21).

The results in the sports events were as follows:—

Races for Boys:

Upper School:

- Boys over 12:—1. Eric Jelfs.
2. W. Wheatley
,, under 12:—1. A. E. Warmington.
2. W. Sparrow.

- Infants:—1. C. Harwood.
2. R. Hancox.
3. J. Hacklett.

Races for Girls:

- Girls over 12:—1. E. Bayliss.
2. M. Heritage.
,, under 12:—1. N. Pethard.
2. E. Carr.

- Infants:—1. D. Jelfs.
2. G. Barnard.
3. S. Crisp.
4. B. Wheatley.

Throwing the Cricket Ball:—E. Wilkins (an easy win with a very good throw).

Tug-of-War (6 boys v. 8 girls):—M. Heritage's side beat E. Wilkins's.

Mrs. Drysdale, Mr. Swift (to whose initiative the treat was due) and the Vicar defrayed the cost of the tea; the prizes were provided by Mrs. Allsebrook and Mrs. Hands, and Miss Pethard kindly gave sweets for scrambling.

The teachers were assisted in their labours by the Misses Empey, Mrs. Cressy, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. G. Agg, Mr & Mrs. W. Mason, Miss Pethard, Mrs. Hartwell, Misses M., F. and V. Pethard, the Misses Phillips and Mr. Sparrow who is a recognised expert in the art of making tea calculated to tickle the juvenile palate. Mrs. J. W. Mason kindly supplied hot water and lent her kitchen for tea-making. The prizes were distributed by Mrs. Drysdale.

A SAD COINCIDENCE.

July and August have been sad months for many in Badsey. On July 12th we laid to rest one who was suddenly cut off at the very outset of his career, the circumstances of whose death were the more pathetic leaving, as he did, a young wife and a little baby only four months old.

Exactly a month later, on August 12th, Badsey Churchyard was the scene of another sorrowful ceremony—the funeral of Mrs. Arthur Jones, whose death was equally unexpected and hardly less tragic Mrs. Jones had certainly been far from well for some time, but she had recovered some of her old vigour and cheerfulness when the end came with appalling suddenness. Of a truth “In the midst of life we are in death.” The deepest sympathy is felt for Mr. Jones and his two children, and indeed for every member of the two families thrown into mourning by Mrs. Jones’s death. R.I.P.

NOTES AND NEWS.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Keen and family and Mrs. R. W. Keen wish to thank all those who showed such practical sympathy with them in their recent bereavement.

As at present arranged there will be a Confirmation at Badsey Church on March 11th. Particulars of classes will be announced in our next issue.
