THE HARVEST FESTIVAL.

At Badsey there was a plentiful supply of flowers, fruit and vegetables, as may be judged by the following list of contributors:—Mrs. Ashwin, Mr. Binyon, S. Benedict's, Mr. Cave, Mr. A. Sparrow, Mrs. Cave, Mr. G. Jones, Mr. E. Ballard, Mr. E. Collett, Mr. J. Marshall, Mr. W. Sparrow, Mrs. Wasley, Miss Sharp, Mrs. Enstone, Mr. Amos, Mr. J. Reeves, Mrs. C. Keyte, Mr. F. Salter, Mr. Geoffrey Jones, Messrs. Johns and Sons, Mr. E. Knight, Mr. G. Knight, Mr. J. Dones, Mrs. Russell, Mr. J. E. Knight, Mr. A. C. Sparrow, Mr. Wilkins, Mr. J. Perkins, Mr. H. Keen, Mrs. Bayliss, Mrs. Griffin, Mr. Stanford, Mr. J. Keen, Mrs. Kelland, Mr. G. Moisey, Mr. W. Mustoe, Mr. Alcock, Mrs. A. Evans, Mr. G. Collett. The decorations, which were very pretty, were the work of Miss Holmes, Miss Sladden, Miss Browne-Constable, Miss Sharp, Miss Enstone, Mrs. Keyte, and Messrs. A. Sparrow, G. Moisey, G. Collett, and W. Moisey. There were 88 communicants, and the collections amounted to £5 5s. 0^d.

Wickhamford Church was also very tastefully decorated, thanks to Mrs. Drysdale, Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. G. Agg, Miss Pethard, Miss M. Pethard, and Mrs. Hartwell. Offerings in kind were received from Mr. Lees-Milne, Mr. J. W. Mason, Mrs. Walters, Mr. J. Colley, Mr. W. Smith, Mr. P. Hartwell, Mrs. E. Pethard, Mr. W. Cox, Miss Pethard, Mrs. Taylor, Miss Empey, Mrs. G. Agg, Mrs. B. Griffin, Mrs. R. Heritage, Mr. F. Banner, Mrs. J. Moisey and Mrs. Hartwell. The Rural Dean (Rev. Dr. Walker) preached an eloquent sermon at Even-song, and the collections amounted to £3 14s. 9^d.

The bulk of the produce from both parishes was sent, as usual, to Christ Church Mission. Mr. A. E. Jones and Mr. Lees-Milne kindly provided empties, and ready-packed hampers were given by Messrs. A. W. Perkins, W. Knight, A. E. Jones, E. Mustoe, A. Mustoe, W. L. Hayward, H. G. Naylor, G. Agg, W. Cox, W. Jones, R. G. Drysdale, and B. R. Swift. Friends of the Mission will be interested to learn that the district in Poplar hitherto worked by the Mission has been, or is soon to be constituted a parish with the Mission Church of S. Frideswide as its Parish Church. The Bishop of London has provided the Mission with a new sphere of work in Faraday Road, Notting Hill, and the priest-in-charge, in acknowledging what he calls a "magnificent offering," says our gifts have been "most gratefully received in this very poor district."

NOTES AND NEWS.

Lieut. Henderson has again been wounded and has this time returned to England for treatment. He has had the honour of being mentioned in dispatches.

Lieut. Douglas appears to have had an exciting time with the Naval Brigade in Antwerp, where he was in command of a machine-gun section. He made the personal acquaintance of the now famous trenches and was apparently one of the last to leave the city, "dodging shells and falling houses" in his progress through it. But for his resourcefulness, which enabled him to reach Ostend in safety, he would probably now be interned in Holland instead of being luminously housed at the Crystal Palace.

Private J. Bennett has been invalided home from the front suffering from rheumatism.

The Bishop of Worcester has licensed the Rev. John Ludlow Lopes, M.A., to officiate in the chapels of S. Benedict's and S. Christopher's Hostels "in preaching the Word of God and in reading the Common Prayers and in celebrating the Holy Sacrament of the Lord's Supper according to the form prescribed in the Book of Common Prayer . . . for the use and benefit of the Inmates of the aforesaid Institution and others connected therewith Provided always that no Celebration of Holy Communion shall take place on Sundays and Saints' Days.

Holders of Missionary Boxes are reminded that such boxes are returnable to the Vicarage on or before Saturday, November 21st.
