THE WAR.

Lance-Corporal Geo. Evans has, we are glad to learn, recovered from his wounds, which were somewhat serious, and has returned from India to his regiment.

Private C. Knight, of the Worcesters, came home on July 21st, completely incapacitated, for the time being at any rate, partly by the after-effect of wounds received as long ago as January 13th, 1916, and partly as a result of his terrible experiences at the front. When he was wounded he had only just recovered from gas-poisoning. He was nursed in the first instance at Boulogne, and afterwards at the Norfolk War Hospital from which he was sent to Sheringham for rest and change. After a few days' leave in April, 1916, he had a relapse and was sent for treatment to the 3rd General Hospital at Wandsworth, where he remained until last month when he was given his discharge to take effect on August 3rd. His health seems to have improved slightly since his return home and we trust he may eventually make a complete recovery. Private Knight volunteered for service in November 1914 but was rejected. A second application in January 1915 was successful and he was sent to the front after two months' training.

Trooper E. Evans, of the Warwickshire Yeomanry, has turned out an excellent shot and succeeded in carrying off a shooting-prize.

Sergt. J. F. Agg and Pte W. Agg, of the Canadians, who paid a flying visit to Badsey a few weeks ago were both looking remarkably fit.

Captain B. Barton, late of Bower's Hill, was mentioned in the dispatch from Salonika published on July 23rd.

CONFIRMATION.

Private E. C. Hall, whose services are sadly missed at Wickhamford, was confirmed at Rouen, on June 21st.

NOTES AND NEWS.

The Vicar acknowledges the receipt of £2 from Mrs. H. Keen for the Badsey Organ Fund.

The parcel containing copies of the Church Army leaflet, "Over the Top," was delayed on rail and failed to reach Evesham in time for the leaflets to be distributed with our last issue. A copy is, however, being sent out with each magazine this month and we hope everyone will read it.

The Thursday Celebration and Intercession Service at Badsey are not attended nearly so well as they used to be. Will not some of those who were to be found more or less regularly at either or both of these services in the early days of the war make a fresh start?
