THE WAR.

We regret that Cpl. Cecil Hartwell was described in our last issue as Pte. Cecil Hartwell.

Pte. Cecil G. Agg is still going on well and Staff-Sergt. J. C. Wilson and Pte. L. Cockerton have both rejoined their units.

Pte. G. W. Nightingale is in hospital in Alexandria.

Pte. A. Huxley, who was reported wounded, has now recovered and been home on leave.

Pte. W. H. Yeates, who was admitted to hospital in France on October 4 suffering from a gunshot wound in the side, has now apparently rejoined his unit.

We are sorry to learn that Pte. A. E. Knight, who has already suffered so much from his wounds, is faced with the prospect of another operation.

Gunner C. W. Wilkins, R.F.A., has recently undergone an operation in India for the removal of a tumour from which, we understand, he was suffering before he joined the colours. He was in Mesopotamia when an operation was found to be necessary and was promptly sent back to India. When he last wrote home he was going on well and expected soon to be sent to the hills.

Gunner J. Perkins is now in hospital at Ware and expects to come home soon.

Pte. S. Harris has sustained wounds in the head and a broken ankle. He is in hospital at Gateshead and is going on well.

Pte. E. H. Hall is in hospital near Birmingham suffering from a crushed foot, the result of a football accident. The accident occurred behind the lines just after Pte. Hall had come out of the front line trenches and, although the affected part has been x-rayed twice, the patient has so far made very little progress.

Pte. F. Turner, A.V.C., has had a second attack of fever at Salonika but is now convalescent.

Pte. H. Sadler has been very severely wounded by shrapnel in the left thigh and in both feet. One great toe has been amputated and it was at one time thought that he would lose a foot. He is in Netley Hospital and is progressing as well as can be expected.

NOTES AND NEWS.

The Harvest Festival was kept at Wickhamford on October 14th and at Badsey on October 21st. Everything connected with the Festival was encouraging; the collections were probably a record, the congregations were good, and at Badsey there were more communicants than ever before. The cost of printing prevents our recording the names of the many who sent offerings of fruit, vegetables and flowers to the churches, but mention must be made of the following who provided ready-packed hampers, etc., for the Ch. Ch. Mission:—Wickhamford: Mrs. Drysdale, Mrs. Cox, Mrs. E. Hall, Mrs. G. Pethard, and Messrs. Lees-Milne, Swift, Carter, Agg, W. Jones, Willmore, J. Colley, Phillips, Hardiman, Sutton, C. Halford, H. Halford. Badsey: Messrs.

Badsey—with—Aldington and Wickhamford Parochial Magazine.

Binyon, W. Knight, T. H. Knight, J. E. Knight, A. Perkins, Johns & Sons, A. & E. Mustoe, E. Collett, A. E. Jones, Geoffrey Jones, A. Sears, A. Dore and the Vicar. The Wickhamford consignment weighed $14\frac{1}{2}$ cwt., and that from Badsey $17\frac{1}{2}$ cwt. Mrs. Drysdale kindly provided cartage from Wickhamford to the station, and the carriage on the produce from Badsey was kindly defrayed by the same parishioner as in past years. The assistant-priest of the Ch. Ch. Mission (the Head of the Mission is serving as Cavalry Chaplain in France) in acknowledging in most appreciative terms of the gifts from these parishes says he only wishes the donors could see the joy of the recipients.

On Advent Sunday (Dec. 2nd) the collections at both churches will be divided between S.P.G. and the Diocese of Lebombo.
