THE WAR.

Our returned prisoners-of-war, together with with one or two of our local soldiers who had been discharged owing to exceptionally serious injuries, were entertained to supper in the Parish Room on Thursday January 23rd. The little function was organised by Mrs. H. Johns and Mrs. J. E. Knight who collected the necessary funds and, with the help of a few willing assistants, prepared both the room and the repast. Their labours, which were by no means light, were fully rewarded, for all those present appeared to enjoy themselves immensely and, the money subscribed being more than was required, the balance was divided among the guests. The proceedings were enlivened with musical selections, the principal contributors being Miss C. Johns, Pte. F. W. Nightingale who is an expert performer on the mouth-organ, and the Vicar.
