AN EVENING WITH THE SLADDEN FAMILY OF SEWARD HOUSE LETTERS FROM A BADSEY FAMILY IN 1914

Early in 1879, a recently-married couple arrived at Seward House, Badsey, with their young son, Jack. Julius and Eugénie Sladden had married in December 1877 at the British Embassy in Paris and their son, Jack, was born the following year in Chipping Norton. Julius was in business at Sladden & Collier's Brewery in Evesham. Seven more children followed, all born at Seward House. The family quickly became involved in village life and were to remain a major influence in Badsey for over a hundred years until the death of the youngest in the family, Miss Juliet Sladden, in October 1984 at the age of 86.

After the death of Juliet, Seward House was sold and a huge archive of letters was deposited at Worcestershire Record Office. Many of these letters span the years of the First World War. On Friday 12th September at 7.30 pm in St James' Church, Badsey, members of The Badsey Society will play the parts of the Sladden family of Seward House and read from their letters written in 1914. We shall hear from them in the weeks leading up to the war and in the first few months of the waar.

On 28th June 1914, Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, was assassinated in Sarajevo. The Sladdens, along with the rest of the country, did not appreciate it at the time, but they were just weeks away from war. Life carried on as normal: games of tennis were played, Badsey Flower Show was a success, and the Sladdens were busy planning a family holiday in Newport, Pembrokeshire. Then on 28th July, Austria-Hungary declared war on Serbia. This seemingly small conflict between two countries spread rapidly: soon, Germany, Russia, Great Britain, and France were all drawn into the war, largely because they were involved in treaties that obligated them to defend certain other nations.

Monday 3rd August was a Bank Holiday in Britain and the nation was on holiday. Mrs Eugénie Sladden was on holiday at Craig-y-Mor in the village of Parrog near Newport with her four daughters. Julius was with their youngest son, Cyril, staying with his sister, Charlotte Hayward, in Folkestone. The other three sons had been unable to get to Newport because of the events which were unfolding.

Eugénie wrote to her husband saying: "Kathleen arrived this afternoon bringing us the latest London news. We knew last night that the Naval Reserve had been called out. The Territorials were turned back on their way to camp and George had to start off again in a few hours. She does not know where he is likely to be sent, but he will try and send us an address as soon as he can. Should England really go to war, he will volunteer for active service. I feel very sad about it though I suppose it is quite right that he should do so. Of course he will not now be able to come down here and there is some uncertainty about Jack as they will probably be short of clerks and may have to lend some to the War Office. Kathleen says if doctors are wanted, Arthur may also volunteer, and in that case, Mary would offer herself as nurse, so it seems as if there may be a time of great anxiety before us. I am so thankful that if we fight we shall be with the French and not against them, but it is all very terrible."

At 11 pm on 4th August, Britain declared war on Germany. Two days later, Arthur Sladden wrote to his mother to say that he had joined the Royal Army Medical Corps. He concluded by saying: "Goodbye, Mother dear, keep up a stout heart in all these troubles and we'll hope for a speedy end to the war."

Please come and join us on 12th September to find out about the events of 1914 through the eyes of a Badsey family.

2 Thought For The Month from The Revd Richard Court

Dear All,

As you will all be aware the 4 August 2014 marks the 100th anniversary of the day Britain entered one of the costliest conflicts in history – the First World War – with fighting continuing until the 11th of November 1918, Armistice Day, and although 82% of those who put on a uniform between 1914 and 1918 survived many returned with terrible wounds either physical or emotional or both. It was the war that was to end all wars which we sadly know was not the case and fighting continues across the world.

In all three churches in the Benefice of Badsey with Aldington, Offenham and Bretforton, some form of Commemoration will be (or has already been) held. Offenham held its 'Hats Off to our Boys' Flower Festival at the beginning of July with my thanks to Offenham Floral Art and all those organisations in the village which were involved. Bretforton will be holding a Commemoration Service in Church at 6.30 on Sunday 3 August and Badsey Church as part of the Festival of Churches will be hosting displays over the first two weekends in September with thanks to The Badsey Society and others who are organising the event.

It is important that these events are not seen as a celebration in any way, but they are very much a way of remembering and commemorating the event and paying tribute to those who gave so much, and it must also be remembered that people on both sides of the conflict were affected.

War, I fear, will be with us as long as human kind exists but I pray for a time when it will be no more and that God's Kingdom will be seen here on earth in the nature of Love, Compassion, Justice and Freedom.

August appears to be very quiet - with only one wedding booked for FRIDAY the 15th.

We hope to keep the ringing going, but lack of support is hampering this situation at the moment with holidays and illness taking the toll.

We would still like more to take an interest. Why not come and watch for a while. Just turn up.

Our meeting in June was about Gideons army. We watched a video depicting the story while the children made torches. There were no batteries in those days so the torches were made to look like flames coming out of a cup (representing a clay jar). We then re-told the story using props, water, party blowers and the torches made by the children. We used strawberries to represent the different parts of Gideons army to show the small number that actually fought. We then enjoyed eating them. We had two teams of children who competed in a balloon game that represented the dream the midianites had of a bread roll knocking the tent down. we asked God to help us with the difficult things we may face in the weeks to come.

There was a different format for refreshments tonight, each table had their own personal teapot with cups and a plate of cakes,a little more sophisticated than the usual mugs.

The entertainment was Penny Turner who made up her own poems and then illustrated them, a number of these were read to the ladies on various subjects and proved quite amusing. A little like Pam Ayres but without her accent.

Penny then had the task that we ask most of our speakers to do and that is to judge our Alphabet competition. This month it was A there were many interesting items beginning with the letter A but the one she chose was Wendy Beasley's Ant Powder. It was 'Wendy's night as she also won the squares competition.

Our next meeting will be on Wed 23rd July when the speaker will be from Sedgeberrow talking about Alpacas. If you are interested or just want a pleasant evening out why not join us , start at 7.30 pm at the small lounge in the Legion Club. Ladies of all ages are made most welcome.

Our meeting on July 1st. was attended by 35 members and was opened by Wendy in the absence of Mary who was on holiday, Wendy then informed us that Marion Begley, who gave us a talk on Japanese Customs at our May meeting, had phoned us the following day wishing to thank all at the meeting for the collection of £58.73, this with the £30 donated by the club for her talk had raised the sum of £88.73 for her 'Holidays for Chernobyl children's charity. After reminding everyone that names and deposits for the afternoon Tea outing on July 17th. were due for payment at this meeting, Wendy gave out the birthday cards and then introduced Mr Alan Houghton who gave a talk and reminisced about the 40s. and 50s., this was well received as his memories were also ours.

After the talk we enjoyed our tea and cakes and Doris and Wendy did the raffle.

Our next meeting is on Tuesday August 5th. at 14.30hrs, all welcome and we would be delighted to welcome any new members.

Mike.

A lovely June evening saw members of Badsey W.I. enjoying an evening in the lovely garden of Paul and Angela Gash.

After the business of the meeting, chaired by our new President Jane Thompson, a superb American Supper was enjoyed by all. As usual the food was a vast variety of sweet and savoury items which were delicious and plentiful. A Garden Quiz was organised by Eileen Goodall and really tested member's knowledge. A big thank you to Angela and Paul for the use of their garden which was offered to us at the last minute due to Marianne Beddis being unwell and whose garden we were going to use. A delightful summer's evening thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Also in June on typical English summers day members enjoyed an outing to Longstock Water Gardens in Hampshire, owned by the John Lewis/Waitrose Group. The gardens were a sheer joy and so beautifully peaceful and calming. All the acres of garden and lakes are maintained by hand and this means that 2½ miles of lawn edging is done by hand shears. No mechanical aids used here!!

A visit to the nearby Nursery and Café completed a beautiful day out.

In July our speaker for the evening was Diana Raphael on 'Tales of the Riverbank'. What a superb speaker and so interesting. Diana told how her mother, who lived in Birmingham, used to CYCLE from Birmingham to Evesham and back again every week-end to see her husband to be. Diana said when her mother came to live in Evesham once she was married she had only seen the Ferry House from the other side of the river. She had never been right up to it or inside it but it looked idyllic sitting there on the river bank. When she eventually went inside the idyll soon turned to horror when she found there was no electric, no water, no bathroom and no inside toilet. The water had to be obtained from a tap outside which only 'trickled' water and the toilet was a small wooden shed up the garden. There were flagstones on the floor which were always wet and had grass and weeds growing between them. When she made up her mind to have them removed and Marley tiles fitted the builder was up in arms as the Ferry had once been the 'wine cellar' belonging to the Abbey and the monks grew their grapes behind the winery to make the wine. Not able to throw the flagstones away the builder gave them to the Almonry and they now adorn the entrance lobby of the museum. Diana had so many tales and information to impart that we could have listened to her all night.

In September we are to visit Bletchley Park and in October a 5 day visit to the Peak District.

Our speaker on Wednesday 13th August is Ruth Lowe on Mary Quant and members have been asked to wear black and white and if possible 60's gear. So dig out those mini-skirts and long white boots and come along to our meeting. It is held in the Remembrance Hall and begins at 7.15. Visitors are always welcome
