Keeping with tradition, the Anglican Benefice of East Vale and Avon hosted a four-day visit during August for members of the Evangelical Church of Central Germany.

Our visitors enjoyed a busy weekend that began with a guided tour of Pershore Abbey and Eucharist service, which was later followed by a visit to Wendy Stafford's glassworks. The weekend itinerary also included a road trip to Weston-Super-Mare and visits to a selection of gardens that participate in the National Garden Scheme.

A special Eucharist service was conducted at St James church by Archdeacon Robert Jones. At the end of the service sung in both English and German, the leader of the German group presented Reverend Philip Morton with a gift as a mark of appreciation of the partnership shared between the two church groups. An invitation was also extended for the Benefice to visit Germany in 2018 to celebrate the 20th anniversary of a partnership which over the years has forged strong cultural understanding and built lasting friendships.

Thought For The Month From Revd. Fr. Philip Morton

Dear Friends

This is the season of harvest when the farmers and growers after much hard work, have gathered in the majority of their produce. The farmers planted their seeds months ago but many of the fruit growers would have had their trees planted possibly decades ago. Irrespective of when the seeds or trees were planted the harvest is now very much gathered in.

Over previous years much has been done in the six churches of our Benefice to plant the 'seeds' of the gospel and we must begin to look for the 'harvest' from all those various efforts. Last month I mentioned the new Messy Church starting and also the Bishop's Certificate course. Let us look forward to these two new ventures to bring in a 'harvest' into our churches along with the many other exciting events that are happening in the coming months.

The Reverend Thomas Henry Hunt,

Vicar of Badsey with Aldington, and Wickhamford,
1852 to 1887

Born in 1826 and educated at Eton and later Christchurch the Reverend Hunt arrived as the vicar of Badsey in 1852. Just 26, he was dismayed to find Badsey church dilapidated, there was no organ and the surrounding churchyard was witnessed as a place for grazing sheep.

Putting his energy into the challenge before him, Reverend Hunt formed a choir and until there was money available to purchase an organ a harmonium was provided. It was during those difficult early years that Reverend Hunt developed an interest in farming, acquiring a poorly drained and neglected area of Glebe land which he cleared and restored to prime condition. One of Reverend Hunt's sons tells how generous his father was at harvest time, allowing 'gleaners' – people who collect leftover crops after the land has been harvested, 'to pick up something worth their while.'

In 1866 the churchyard came under the auctioneer's hammer and was conveyed into the joint names of Reverend Hunt and Joseph Jones, church warden. Joseph Jones some years later was brought before Evesham Magistrates Court for uprooting parts of the yew hedging that formed the southern boundary of the churchyard. He was fined £1 and asked to pay damages and costs estimated at 11s 6d.

Reverend Hunt's ambition to refurbish Badsey church received a boost after receiving a considerable inheritance. Supported by Mr. Savory (Aldington Manor) as fund treasurer, raising fund for Badsey church began in earnest. In 1885 the church was closed and restoration work began. A churchyard wall was constructed that today marks the boundary that faces the village High Street.

In 1887, Reverend Hunt retired and left Badsey. He died in 1896. In memory of his devoted ministry, a stone cross was erected outside Badsey church porch and dedicated by the Archdeacon of Warwick in 1910.

Tower News

JOHN BOLTON (Steeple Keeper)
JULY 15th 1940 -- AUG 28th 2017

Sadly John passed away very quietly on Bank Holiday Monday after a mammoth struggle with chest problems.

He was a lovely man that gained much enjoyment from helping others – especially St. James Church, Badsey where he took great pleasure from volunteering his services over the years looking after our wonderful peal of bells. He prided himself on keeping the ropes functioning with his very capable knowledge of how to splice a rope. Today all eight ropes carry at least one of John's splices.

The Four Shires Guild of Bell Ringers of which John was a Member rang in celebration of his life before the most beautiful Service taken by Philip our vicar.

The church being packed with his many friends and colleagues. Gordon, one of our ringers, tolled him to the gate before he went off for cremation.

If wished, donations in his memory can still be made to the church or Merstow Green Funeral Home.

Hilary Bolton
