BADSEY SOCIETY CENSUS WALK

Sunday 27th March 2011 – 2.30 pm

Details of all these properties (and much more) may be found on the Badsey website, www.badsey.net

New members of The Badsey Society always welcome, just £2 to join.

Look out for our latest publication, "Digging for a Living", by Terry Sparrow, all about our market gardening heritage, to be published on 21st May 2011. Other publications on sale in Badsey Spar.

1A, Church of St John the Baptist - Stone building in Early English style consisting of chancel, nave, south porch and embattled western tower. Completely restored in 1841 and again restored in 1902 at a cost of £350. Contains 2 elaborate altar tombs to the Sandys family; here also was buried Penelope Washington daughter of Colonel Henry Washington, an ancestor of George Washington.

1, Wickhamford Manor, 20 rooms [Wickhamford Manor, Manor Road] - old Manor House nicely restored, part stone, part timber and stone and tiled roof with nicely laid out grounds: flower beds, lawns, rose garden, flagged walks, old stone dovecote etc. Front door faces west with small porch and leads to entrance hall with doors off to playroom on north side, a damp room, board floor, 1 window to west and also passage and door to underground cellar; this part is heated by flues, the rest of the ground floor by stoves as there are no cellars under. From entrance hall opens the drawing-room facing east and also the best stairs lighted from west and the lounge hall facing east with doors to dining-room facing east and another door to the smoke-room, which again opens on to the rose garden. Door from lounge hall also opens to passage to the back door and kitchens. From back passage is door to flower room with washup sink etc (the old kitchen window faces onto the front door). Opposite side, housemaids' pantry facing south and back stairs. Swing door cuts off passage from kitchen facing north, with back door on opposite side of passage and under old hop kiln, larder servants' hall larder, servants' hall.
