

Wood Norton Rectory
East Dereham
July 6. 1898

Dear Mr. Price,

You may find the Enclosed list helpful.
It is taken from the Registers,
but please do not accept the dates as absolutely accurate. For (i) I may have made mistakes; (ii)
the Registers were at times abominably kept (as you will find plaintively noted;

(iii) it is a question, with regard to the earlier use of the word "Curate", whether it does not mean "Incumbent".

The Incumbent of Badsey is a "Perpetual Curate", and is only "Vicar" by courtesy and act of Parliament.

(iv) Some of the Incumbents here "battered pluralists", and may never have resided at Badsey; or, at any rate, may have resided only part of the time.

However, you are welcome to the list, for

What it is worth.

With kind regards,

I remain,

Your truly,

C. J. Jeffs.
