

Master G. Gault

Shipston on Stour

Many thanks darling Billie for your pretty little crosses which I shall carefully treasure in remembrance of the
dear little fingers that made them. You do
not yet know dear

Willie, how pleasant
it is to be remembered
even by little friends
when you are far away
from home, but as you
grow up to be a
man, which I trust
you will, and a good

one thing you will know I have say you
are growing quite
great boy & perhaps if he meet again you
will be a man. After think of you and hope
you will not quite forget me. Give my kind regards to your
Mamma & Papa
