

LETTER CARD.
BROADSTAIRS.

To Mrs. Hands,

Badsey Vicarage,
Evesham.

J. R. GALE,
Thanet House,
BROADSTAIRS.

Broadstairs,

June 30, 1905.

---

M. S. A.,

I went from Margate to Ramsgate by boat this afternoon & have just arrived here by train. I shd.
as soon think of going to B'ham as to Ramsgate for a summer holiday. This is by far the best place in these parts, but if any of these places is less stuffy than the I. S. M. it is very worst for a Dutchman.
Proceeding to Cliftonville & thence to Margate shortly. Remember to send Barnard to meet me at Eversham at 4.17 to-morrow. Love to all from your paper

The Beach, Broadstairs

33918

The Promenade, Broadstairs

The Bay, Broadstairs

York Gate, Broadstairs

BROADSTAIRS, FROM GRAND HOTEL

Broadstairs, from Bleak House

26549

Holy Trinity Church, Broadstairs

Holland House and Kingsgate Castle