

A brick pillar with a metal sign. The pillar is constructed from red and brown bricks in a running bond pattern. At the top, there is a dark, flat metal cap. A rectangular metal plaque is mounted on the upper part of the pillar, featuring the words 'ELM' and 'LODGE' in a stylized, raised font. The pillar is surrounded by green foliage and a dark metal fence is visible on the left. A concrete curb and a metal grate are visible at the base of the pillar on the right.
