

The Evesham Singers

Musical Director
Ian Gerrard

Accompanist
Wendy Browne

present

CHRISTMAS IS COMING

A Festive Concert with special guest

Jennifer Bomyer
Viola

Saturday 11th December 2004
St. James' Church, Badsey
7.30pm

Programme

Part One

Choir: The Christmas Song
Do You Hear What I Hear?
Mary's Child
Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer

Jenny Bomyer, Viola, & Ian Gerrard, Piano

Air and Dance - Gordon Jacob

Prelude, Carol and Christmas Dance - R Vaughan Williams

Choir: When a Child Is Born
Candle light Carol
The Jesus Gift
Tell Out The News

Part Two

Choir: "A Saviour Born"- A Christmas Cantata
C Armstrong Gibbs

Ian Gerrard, Organ

Christmas Prelude on "In Dulci Jubilo" -

Buxtehude

Picardy - Alec Rowley

This Endrys Night, A Christmas Paean -

George Oldroyd

Choir: Christmas Day - G Holst

Wine and mince pies will be available during the interval.

The Evesham Singers

is a happy band of ladies who enjoy singing. The choir was formed in 1960 with approximately 30 members, and has an extensive repertoire ranging from traditional choral works to folk and contemporary music.

The Singers give many performances each year including weddings, concerts and charity events.

New members are always welcome.

Rehearsals take place in the vestry of St Peter's, Bengeworth every Thursday
7.30 – 9.30.

If you would like either to sing with the choir or arrange a concert, please contact Ian Gerrard on (01386) 556545

Rehearsals begin again on 13th January 2005.

Jennifer Bomyer

Jennifer is 18 and in her final year at Prince Henry's High School studying A levels in Music, French and German.

She plans to study music at University next year.

Jennifer began studying the violin at the age of 8, taking up the viola 5 years later. She already has her Grade 8 and is due to take the exam for her Diploma of the Associated Board of the Royal School of Music later this month.

She is a founder member of Prince Henry's String Quartet, and plays with various orchestras around the region, including Worcestershire Youth Orchestra where she is the principal viola player.