MEMORIAL WINDOW.

The east window in Badsey Church has been filled with stained glass, to the honour and glory of God, and in memory of the late Rev. Thomas Henry Hunt, M.A., Vicar of Badsey, Aldington and Wickhamford, from 1852 to 1887. The window is a very beautiful one, and has been presented to the Church by Mr. Hunt's family. The subject is "The Good Shepherd," and the work has been executed by Messrs. James Powell & Sons, Whitefriars Glass Works, London. E.C.

The formal ceremony of Unveiling the Window will take place on Tuesday, November 4th, when there will be a Special Service at 3 p.m., and the sermon will be preached by the Rev. T. H. Vines, M.A., Rector of Fiskerton, Lincoln (an old friend of Mr. Hunt). We are glad to say some of the members of Mr. Hunt's family will be at Badsey on that day, and we are quite sure that the Parishioners will be very pleased to see them, and will give them a very hearty welcome. Mr. Hunt was an earnest, faithful and devoted Vicar of these parishes for many years, and we know how very much he did for the well-being of the people here. He has left his mark behind, particularly in the excellent restoration of our grand old Church, and we are sure his memory is greatly revered by all who knew him.

In the evening of November 4th there will be a Conversazione in the Old School at 7.30 p.m., when there will be music and dancing afterwards. Tickets of admission will be 6d. each, and the proceeds will be given to the Clock Fund. Light refreshments will be supplied at a reasonable charge. We hope that those Parishioners who knew Mr. Hunt will be able to be present.

BADSEY CHURCH CLOCK FUND.

At a meeting of subscribers held in the Old School on Tuesday, October 7th, 1902, it was decided to give the order to Messrs. John Smith & Sons, Derby, for a new clock to be placed in the Church Tower, with the Westminster Chimes added, at a total cost of £128. This has now been done, and the firm has promised to have the clock ready early in January. The fund is making good progress, and the following sums have been received in addition to those acknowledged in former numbers of the Magazine:—The family of the late J. P. Lord, Esq., £5 5s.; Proceeds of a Rummage Sale per Miss H. Ashwin, £4 11s.; Colonel Long, M.P., £2; Mr. Joseph Knight, £2; Mr. T. M. Evans, 10s. 6d.; Mr. Henry Byrd, 10s. 6d.; Mr. Joseph Marshall, 10s.; Mr. Heath (Aldington), 10s.; Mr. H. Kelland, 10s.; Mr. E. Hooper, 5s.; sums under 5s., 12s. We desire to add that by an accidental oversight we omitted to say in the last number of the Magazine that Mr. H. Stewart was associated with Mr. Pendlebury in collecting for the fund.

BADSEY CHURCH BELLS

At a meeting of the Badsey Belfry Committee held on Wednesday, October 8th, it was decided to give the order for two new bells to complete the peal of eight. The work has been entrusted to Messrs. Mears & Stainbank, of London, and the Committee feel convinced that the work will be carried out so as to give general satisfaction. The total cost will be about £96, and of this sum two thirds is already in hand. Mr. J. Sladden and Mr. H. Keen have kindly made themselves responsible to raise the remaining sum. It is expected that the bells will be placed in the tower before Christmas, and one of the bells will be used for the striking of the new clock. Inscriptions in Latin will be placed on the bells, to record the fact that they are erected as a memorial of the reign of Queen Victoria of blessed memory

READING ROOM.

At a meeting held in the Old School on Tuesday, October 28, at 7 p.m., it was decided to start a Reading Room in Badsey this winter. A resolution was passed that the payments for membership should be as follows: 6d. entrance fee, and 1s. per month to be paid in advance. It was also agreed that no one under the age of sixteen years should be admitted as members. A strong committee was elected, and it is proposed to open the room early in November. Further details will be given later on.
