21_22_Wi ckhamFm _IMG_742 7	Wickham Farm, Manor Road. AKA Pitchers Hill Farm. Two buildings closest to road. The brick and slate barn on the S appears C19 or C20. But the lower, L- shaped building to the N, is earlier. This appears on an 1812 architect's plan as a new cow shed (still used for milking). Timbers in the Waggon House at the S end, suggest an even earlier building. Mostly timber cladding resting on lias stone, slate roof with catslide, some brick. For photo from 1980s see badsey.net/wickhamford/ow108.htm. Photo shows NE elevation.	29 to 31
